LIFE INSURANCE.

THE KNICKERBOCKER

MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF NEW YORK.

Southern Branch, SAVANNAH, Ga.,

A. WILBUR, Manager.
R. D. ARNOLD, Consulting Physician.

THE ONLY BRANCH OFFICE OF LIFE INSURANCE IN THIS SECTION WHERE POLICIES ARE ISSUED AND LOSSES PAID.

ASSETS NEARLY

$5,000,000.

ANNUAL INCOME NEARLY

$3,000,000.

Annual Dividends nearly 50 per cent.

$73,500 LOSSES PAID BY THE SOUTHERN BRANCH IN TWO YEARS.

THE KNICKERBOCKER IS AN OLD, RELIable Company, and offers as great inducements to insurers as any solvent Company can. Issues Policies on every desirable plan. Loans one-third of Premium to Policy-Holder.

All Policies non-forfeitable, as the insured can at any time on demand, get its surrender value.

NO RESTRICTIONS ON RESIDENCE OR TRAVEL.

NO EXTRA CHARGE for OFFICERS of the ARMY or NAVY, Officers of first-class Steam or Sail Vessels, or Railroad Conductors, &c.

The "KNICKERBOCKER" is ONE of the TWO Northern Companies whose Policies in the South were kept intact during the entire Rebellion, whose Dividends were accredited to Policy Holders as though Premiums were paid.

And is THE Company that paid all losses after the war, that occurred during the war, thus proving its integrity, the honorable method of conducting its business, and its indisputable solvency.

The KNICKERBOCKER still pays all losses, never disputes a just claim, and is as liberal and SAFE as any Company in America.

FIRE INSURANCE.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE LONDON LIVERPOOL AND GLOBE INS. CO. WHOSE CAPITAL AMOUNTS TO $17,000,000 IN GOLD.

I am now prepared to Insure all kinds of
PUBLIC AND PRIVATE BUILINGS, RAILROAD DEPOTS, SHOPS, ROLLING STOCK, BRIDGES AND TRACKS, FACTORIES FOUNDERIES, MILLS AND MERCHANDISE.
IN ANY PART OF NORTH CAROLINA AT EXCEEDING LOW RATES.

I will when desired issue Permanent Policies which insures the property specified forever, unless the assured chooses to cancel his Policy in which event all the premium he has paid will be returned less five per centum.

The loss of a Court House or other Public Building at the present time would be a public calamity, whereas a trifling amount paid for a policy
WILL SECURE A SUFFICIENT SUM TO REBUILD SHOULD THE PROPERTY BE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

LIFE INSURANCE.

ALL CASH PLAN OF THE

ÆTNA

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

W. H. CROW, General Agent for North Carolina and Virginia, South of the James.

Accumulated Capital, over $10,000,00
Annual Income, 6,000,000
Surplus, above Liabilities, 2,000,000

THE ÆTNA

Has $136 Assets for every $100 Liabilities.

ALL POLICIES STRICTLY NON-FORFEITING.

CASH RATES!
CASH POLICIES!
CASH DIVIDENDS!

DIVIDENDS PAID ANNUALLY, COMMENCING AT THE END OF THE YEAR.

Dividends may be used to reduce the annual Premium or increase the Cash value of the Policy.

NON-FORFEITING CASH PLAN.

The Ætna issues Policies on the various forms of whole life and endowment insurance, with dividends on the contribution plan, which may be applied to the reduction of each annual premium after the first, or the full premium, may be paid each year and the dividens applied to reduce the number of annual premiums, together with the period fixed for the maturity of the insurance, so that endowments can be paid to the insured before the time originally specified, and life policies before death.

By this plan of applying the dividends to lessen the cost of the insurance on the original policy, instead of increasing the amount of insurance, and of course its total cost, and the policies will become self-sustaining much sooner than in other companies; and in case of inability to continue payments, give a larger paid-up-policy.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulation on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is pecuniarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

The New York Insurance Monitor says of the ÆTNA:

"No Life Insurance Company ever achieved so complete a success as this popular institution.—Its popularity is altogether unprecedented in the annals of commercial enterprise in this country."

LEGISLATION.

The history of legislation in North Carolina would form one of the strangest books that has ever been published. It would reveal an amount of fraud, venality and recklessness perfectly unparalleled, we venture to say, in the history of legislation in any age or country. If ever before there was a time demanding the most scrupulous and watchful economy, it is the present. If there was ever a time when the most careful reform and the most jealous retrenchment were imperatively necessary it is the present. And yet, in the face of wide-spread ruin and dismay; in the face of repeated failures in crops and a disorganized system of labor; with depression and anxiety in every house-hold, the members of the present Legislature have exhibited the utmost disregard of the actual condition of our people, and have wantonly and wickedly and with malice prepense concocted a system of taxation, that not only outrages public opinion, but fastens, it may be, for all time, burdens perfectly unbearable and destructive upon the landed proprietors of the State.

These representatives of the people—these public servants "so called"—these incapable and indifferent legislators, met in Raleigh and deliberately set to work to despoil the State and add ten fold distress to her people. They enter upon a plan of spoliation as effective in its results as was the "burning" of Sherman's scoundrels.—They lend themselves to the wildest schemes, listen with itching ears to the rapacious demands of wild cat combinations, wink at corruption and profligacy, indulge in vice and immorality, and conspire to paralyze the best interests of the State, to drive away capital, to keep capital from coming into the State and to lay taxes that not only can not be borne, but which would require probably a sixth part of the actual wealth of the whole State to pay. Railroad schemes, without number—a continued waste of public funds, and taxes at once oppressive, and thoroughly ruinous are the results of their six months stay in Raleigh.—They have done nothing but evil, and are an offence to every just and honest man. They deserve, and they will receive the hearty execration of a long suffering, industrious and frugal people.

We write not of those men in both Houses who had an eye single to the honor, prosperity and credit of the State—men who stood up defiantly and continually against fraud, peculation, corruption and bribery. There were such men and they deserve well of the people. They tried faithfully to avert the wrong. Their recorded votes show that they were friends of the people, lovers of country, men of fidelity and honor. But we refer to those harpies, some from Northland, but many "native and to the manor born," who preyed upon our people, and with ravenous appetites strayed to suck the very life blood from the emaciated form of our old Mother. Carpet-baggers who came unbidden and who have fairly battened upon the political garbage that has been thrown to them; obsequious time servers and trimmers who have played the sycophants for fifty years—these are the creatures who have wickedly conspired against the people of North Carolina, and have sought to ruin them by the most oppressive taxation—these are the creatures who amid the troubling of the political waters have been spawned in our Legislative halls, and who ought to be denounced and shunned as you would a leper. They are political lepers and taint the whole political atmosphere.

Of these legislators, some are ignorant, but some are intelligent. The ignorant have followed the teachings of the more intelligent, but all are guilty of inflicting upon poor, honest North Carolina the most grievous wrongs. The people should specially hold the leaders responsible—those who have not sprung instantly from obscurity, but whose advantages and associations have been more respectable. These are the great criminals. Let the people of North Carolina henceforth watch them.—They have attempted, and nearly consummated, their ruin. †

THE "Standard" with characteristic vulgarity refers to one of the employees of this office, and charges him with copying "matter" from the Standard without giving due credit. We make this explanation One or two articles were furnished us by our Senate Reporter, who was duly authorized by the Standard man to do so, as similar favors had been extended to him. As to any other "matter" being copied from the Standard, we have this to say: We were innocent of any such intention and ignorant of any such act. We make up carefully our State News from our exchanges generally, and we copy from them sometimes articles that are not credited to any source. In this way, we may have copied unintentionally "matter" from our immediate neighbor. We say unintentionally, as we never read the Standard unless it be some vituperative reference to ourself to which our attention has been specially directed. We certainly would not have published any thing that appeared in the Standard if we had known the fact. As long as the writer continues his connection with the Sentinel he purposes neither to read the Standard nor to reply to any of its low personal flings again. †

THE London "Telegraph" says that the new English court dress is a copy of the favorite costume of George Washington.

AMERICAN MANNERS.

It would appear from daily developments that no position in life is exempt from insult. A man may studiously ignore personalities, but he is doomed to the insults of the vulgar and the base. He may be Ulysses the First, or General Grant, President of these United States, and lo! the sanctity of his own privacy may be invaded, and to his teeth he may be denounced in terms neither Christian-like nor Senatorial. But this may be accounted for by correct readers of the times. The officials themselves set the example of bad morals and bad manners, and it may be expected most naturally, that their admirers will copy it.

An election occurs in this country. Some fortunate or unfortunate being is chosen, it may be to the Presidency. It may be even a Grant—optimus interpres legum consuetudo, and yet he can find no peace, no cessation from labor, no relief from annoyances, no protection from abuse and denunciation.—More than this: he can find no escape from the carniverous whelps that pursue him with the most unsatisfying appetites. Like the insatiate horse leech (vide the speeches of Patrick Henry) they are always crying for—not beef—but for some office, though it be the meanest of the mean. There are thousands and tens of thousands of long expectant and very needy supporters to be relieved, and the difficulty is, there are not places enough in which to give them comfortable shelter. A wolf-like cry goes up, and ever the President is threatened with tribulation and woe.

Why is this? Why do starving hazzars hang around the Presidential gate? Why do American custom and modes of thought tolerate such gross annoyances? May not a President be quiet? May he not be relieved of such earnest entreaties and vigorous attacks? It seems not. From the experience of many of our Presidents, (and all military men seem to be the peculiar victims,) it is clear that the prize of great notoriety in this country is to be endlessly dogged and importuned.

But how very different is it in Europe especially in England! There Cabinets change and no swarm of office seekers go up to London and buzz around the Governmental bee-hive. The reason of this lies deeper than the surface. It takes root in the same causes that operate so effectively in the Foreign service to which we referred some days since. The World in commenting upon the "Scenes at Washington" remarks, and we make the extract because of its exceeding appropriateness:

"We hear of no such occurrences in Great Britain as attendant upon a change in the administration effected by a popular election. When, not long since, Mr. Gladstone donned the insignia which Mr. D'sraeli felt bound to doff no stories reached us of the former gentleman being dogged from pillar to post by a horrible horde of men insisting upon framing his cabinet for him or demanding the appointment to governmental offices of creatures of their choice. Shall we believe that the English, the Scotch, and the Irish are less ravenous for public office than we Americans? (They do not appear so when once they have become citizens of the United States.) Is it not wiser on our part to compare the British system of filling offices with our own, if peradventure the former may contain some provision whereby there can be, upon a change of administration, no such shameful scenes as those enacting at Washington of which mention has been made.

Eliminating from consideration, for obvious reasons, the positions of Cabinet officers, the secret of the ease with which administrations come and go in Great Britain is due to the fact that a civil service system prevails in that country, whereby applicants secure office, not by virtue of their blood relation to those in power, nor because of their services to the triumphant party, but by standing the test of an examination, in competition with others as to their qualifications for the office which they crave.—That such a system, once established in this country, would insure a similar result, admits of scarcely the shadow of a doubt.—Mr. Jenckes' civil service bill was a grand step in the right direction, though when put into practice time might, and probably would, develop certain modifications necessary to be made. Yet, with its imperfections, it were better that it should have been made a law and put into operation at once than that Washington City should have been the theatre of a performance disgraceful to both actors and a nation of spectators—so disgraceful that the President himself is reported to have been cursed to his face by a grave and reverent Senator, because, forsooth, the former had not selected for certain offices certain of the latter's friends." †

"A DISGUSTED supporter of the Sentinel" is the very man for the Standard. He, no doubt would specially relish its three weeks impromptus, vulgar attempts at wit, and philobrity ad nauseam. Take him neighbor and feed him on your scraps of bad grammar and interminable billingsgate.

WHAT ACTS OF THE REBEL STATES ARE TO BE HELD VALID?—In answer to this question, the Supreme Court of the United States, in the Texas case just decided, said:

"It is not necessary to attempt any exact definitions within which the act of such a State government must be treated as valid or invalid. It may be said, perhaps, with sufficient accuracy, that acts necessary to peace and good order among citizens,—such for example, as acts sanctioning and prescribing marriage and the domestic relations, governing the course of descents, regulating the conveyance and transfer of property, real and personal, and providing remedies for injuries to person and estate, and other similar acts, which would be valid if emanating from a lawful government—must be regarded in general as valid when proceeding from the actual though unlawful government; and that acts in furtherance or support of rebellion against the United States, or intended to defeat the just rights of citizens, and other acts of like nature, must, in general, be regarded as invalid and void."

GEN. BABCOCK, who is now assigned to the duty of examining and reporting upon applications for minor appointments, tells a story, which the Republican papers print, as to how he came to get upon General Grant's staff. He says that he once cooked a supper for Grant, and that Grant, (who then first met him, and who knew him only as a "poor, green, second lieutenant" thereafter assigned him to a place on his staff with the rank of Colonel. All this for a single supper. If Babcock had cooked a dinner for him or had employed Delmonico to do it, he might have been Collector of this port.—N. Y. World.

CORRUPTION AMONG OFFICIALS.

The Wilming on Journal exposes some Radical rascality in that city. It says:

"The Grand Jury of the present term of the Special Court yesterday brought forward a singular document, as the result of their deliberations, presenting certain officials for insufficiency of bond and setting forth the irresponsibility of their sureties. The several amounts and liabilities of bondsmen were clearly recited and the matter duly summed up."

By order of the Judge the document was read aloud in open Court. We have not room for all of the "facts and figures"—But here are some of the facts revealed.—Let the people read and wonder:

"Joseph H. Neff is surety on bonds (including that of the City Clerk and Treasurer) to the amount of $80,000 when his property is valued at but $11,000; Daniel Klein, including his own bond, to the amount of $25,000, has property, valued at but $1,500 Except these two instances, none of the principal or sureties have any visible property. And here are bonds (again including that of the City Clerk and Treasurer) to the amount of $112,000 signed by parties who represent, by the statement of the Grand Jury, property valued only at $13,100. And these bonds are accepted by sworn public officers, as judges—and beyond their value and the responsibility of the parties! Surely the people are well protected—or were responsible, and look at the extent of their responsibility! And yet these men rule the destinies of our county, and have the public coffers in their keeping. The sureties are responsible for the principals, but who or what is responsible for the sureties?"

We have known for some days of a certain Sheriff who gave a bond with certain sureties, when it turns out these sureties have no property. We will recur to this in a day or two. We were asked not to give publicity to the matter at the time we first heard of it, because "our betters" and some of his "officials," were endeavoring to get hold of a certain "life policy," in an Insurance company, belonging to the said Sheriff.

For the Sentinel.

CROW HILL, April — 1869.

Editor of Sentinel:—By "flying post"—a carpet-bagger on a sore back mule—I drop you these lines. I write to ask you one solemn question. It is very solemn. Be you attent. If Governor Holden, our beloved X. P. G. that was, but our beloved Governor sure enough that is; if as I was about to say, our "beloved" indulges him self now in the luxury of a little "cussing," what would he do if he were President?

Grant, as late papers tell us, has been "cussed" by some hot-headed Radical to his face, and that too in the White House. Mem. No fight. If the Governor of our State had been "cussed," he would have "fit." How is our "beloved?" The last time I heard directly from him he was mollified considerably. After his celebrated harangue he subsided, or was "subsidized."

Pax Vobiscum.

THOS. BRUTUS.

THE TAX BILL.

The tax bill has been passed. Soon the tax gatherers will wring from our people quadruple the amount of taxes collected during any one year previous to the war Yet the January interest remains unpaid, and the members of the Legislature are unable to get their per diem. So far as we know there is not one farthing in the public Treasury, nor has the State the credit to borrow the paltry sum required to meet her pressing obligations.

What does Governor Holden propose to do to improve the credit of North Carolina? What steps are being taken to meet the unpaid interest which he promised would be promptly met? By what process is the value of our bonds to be enhanced so that the millions of dollars of appropriations will command a price at all adequate to complete the railroads for the benefit of which they are to be issued? If twenty million of dollars of bonds are worth in depreciated currency barely fifty cents in the dollar, what will be their value when the amount is more than doubled? Does Governor Holden believe that the credit of the State can be improved by proclamations and letters complimentary to the peaceful disposition of our people to be used in the advertisements of land and immigration Associations, when he gives the lie to his own words by telegraphing sensational dispatches against the removal of troops from the State? Is North Carolina to be benefitted by its Chief Executive rushing excitedly through the streets of the Capital, brandishing bludgeons over the heads of quiet and pious ministers of the gospel, and rendering the disgraceful and cowardly attacks of a mob and urging them to repeated violations of the peace, his lawlessness finding its natural sequel in the efforts of the would be assassin in a midnight attempt upon the life of the object of the Governor's enmity? Is the brain that first conceived the violent death of Abraham Lincoln to seek new victims among other political foes? Is peace, prosperity and returning credit to be encouraged by officials pulling out pardons for murderers and assassins?

TAXES may be laid, laws may be passed, our people may be orderly and industrious, but if ignoramuses are to have charge of the finances of the State; if thieves are to control our railroads, and if public officers are to offer rewards for murder, the credit of North Carolina will never be re-established.—Wil. Journal.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS.—Our friends in Caswell, Person and Johnston, have put us under obligations recently. We have added more than a hundred names to our mail books within the past month, from those Counties alone. We hope to receive further additions before long from the same counties. We urge our friends everywhere to make an immediate effort to extend our circulation. If every subscriber will only try, we can soon add thousands of names to our list. †

PEACE IN TENNESSEE.—All the people of Tennessee, Democrats and Radicals, appear to agree that since Brownlow evacuated the Governorship and went to Washington the condition of the State is entirely different from what it was. The Radicals, it is true, do not generally ascribe, in so many words, the great change to Brownlow's departure, but some of them do, and all admit that the change is an actual, substantial, and most happy one. Strife and turmoil have almost wholly ceased, and peace and harmony have taken their place. No acts of violence, or, at any rate, as few as in any State South or North, are recorded. The clouds of trouble have passed away, and the sun, moon, and stars, shine in the blue sky.—The militia, that created so much disturbance, keeping alive and exasperating the feeling of violence, have been disbanded, and are returning to their homes, and a contented people are left behind them.—Louisville Journal.

REMARKS OF T. M. ARGO, OF ORANGE,

On the motion to indefinitely postpone the bill to appropriate $12,000 to the University, delivered in the House of Representatives, on the evening of the 9th of April, 1869.

MR. SPEAKER:—It is a duty incumbent on every State to encourage, by every adequate and just means, the education of its citizens. Even when no provision of organic law dictated a course to those entrusted with the interests of a people, considerations of policy would hardly fail to lead to such a conclusion. It may safely be asserted that intellectual development, resulting from proper tuition, is uniformly attended by a corresponding advancement in moral excellence. Ignorance is promotive of vice, and vice is generative of disorder and bad government. It would seem, sir, therefore, that we have the obligation to encourage the culture of our citizens doubly enjoined upon us; for in addition to the demands of the interests of our constituents, the Constitution commands that education shall be forever encouraged; and provides for the establishment of a system of Free Public Schools. Is it incumbent upon us to make the appropriation proposed in the bill now before the House?

It has, doubtlessly, been already inferred that I am no enemy of education. I can remove any doubt, if any exist, from the minds of gentlemen, by assuring them that, so far from being unfriendly to measures that propose proper means for the diffusion of knowledge, I have been and am now ready to yield them a cheerful support.—But the propriety of the present appropriation is the question for immediate consideration. When it became known that a reorganization of the Board of Trustees of the University would be made, and it was intimated that there would be a suspension of the exercises at College in order to make a change in the system of instruction, and very probably in the professional corps, I ventured to hope that, in the selection of a Faculty the only test applied to gentlemen invited to take the several chairs, would be their proficiency in the particular departments of knowledge they were to teach. I hoped that in the estimate of their qualifications, bitterness of party feeling or previous activity as partisans would, in no wise, be considered; in other words that men would be chosen to instruct the minds of their pupils, and not to inculcate a certain political creed. The necessity of speaking of the character of most of those chosen is obviated by the fact that they are very generally known and the fact of such general notoriety is evidenced by the number of students under tuition at the University. So decidedly, however, was I disposed in favor of the success of the University under any administration, that even after the character of the appointments had become known, though disapproved by all, I believe, but a few of the party, I suspended judgment as to the propriety of granting State aid, and more than once declared that an appropriation should be made should the number of students and the prospects of an increase justify it.

Accordingly, when motions were made in the House on the 19th of March to take, and to indefinitely postpone the bill under consideration, my vote was recorded in the negative, that time might be allowed for indications of success or failure. I should be rejoiced, sirs, for the reason that much benefit would result to my constituents, if the number of students was such as to induce a unanimous vote in favor of this proposition. But how stands the case?

It was asserted, even publicly, some time since that there were ten students attending recitations at the University, and that several others were expected daily.—While at Chapel Hill a few days since, upon inquiry, I ascertained that two from a distance were in regular attendance on college duties, and probably one from the village, though as to him being regularly "in college," those who gave the information were not certain. Besides these, seven or eight little villagers, from twelve to sixteen years were reciting privately to professors, in English Grammar, Arithmetic, some in Geography, and probably two or three of the more advanced in the elements of Greek and Latin. This, so far as I was able to obtain information, constitutes the present University of North Carolina! "Great was the fall thereof!" All over this broad land, wherever those are to be found, whom she in years gone by had sent forth equipped with her bountiful and generous instruction, with a hearty God speed in the battle of life, mournfully and regretfully will be made the exclamation, "Great was the fall thereof!" If I am wrong in my statements as to its present condition, it is not an intentional erring, for I would have it otherwise. It would be well could it be truthfully said, that its condition is even half so good as it has been stated to be. For, I understand that after the earnest, but fruitless solicitation of students from abroad, the Head of the Institution turned his attention to the village, and has as yet, failed to convince any more of our village boys that Arithmetic, Geography, "Reading, Writing and Cyphering," may be taught as thoroughly in the University as in most of our proposed district schools.

Now, sir, with this number of students at the University, and with such promises of an increase, it is hardly to be doubted that any gentleman with vacillate in his judgment as to the proper course to be pursued. The design of the establishment of a University and sustaining those employed to teach at the expense of the State, is to benefit the people of the State, by preparing her sons by instruction in higher branches of learning, to share in her councils and to direct her government.—The Constitution asserts as much in substance when it says religion, morality and knowledge being necessary to good government and the happiness of mankind, schools and the means of education shall forever be encouraged." Sir, we defeat our object, if it be our object to comply with this provision, when we vote to sustain an administration which is unable to command or attract a patronage, even from its own party friends. How clear, how accurate in its statement of the effect of education; how laudable in its purpose is this provision of the Constitution! One which every lover of good order and Christian society will yield a ready support; but, sir, it is already to be remembered that in the accomplishment of a purpose, the end is desirable, so the means should be well chosen. In this case, the reasons are wholly inadequate. In referring to those employed in the Union as teachers, allusion is made to them in their official capacity merely though some of them might be the subjects of rather unpleasant personal criticisms. If the State is to dispense its bounty in aid of education, conferred in such measures that good will result. Hundreds, at least, of children in the State are without the means of education; children of both colors groping in mental darkness eager for admission into the light of truth and knowledge—direct your munificence towards them. If there is a surplus to be dispensed for that purpose if the purposes of the University indicated that it would soon become self sustaining, then might we with very great propriety, meanwhile sustain it.

But, sir, let us not expend to sustain men in office without employment, when such fruitless expenditures will result in a deprivation of those to whom it is a duty to afford relief. It has been urged privately by the friends of this measure that this appropriation will operate, at least, to give a beginning to operations at the University, and that it is necessary to begin somewhere. An argument which is very much impaired, if not entirely divested of force, by the reflection, that if there had been no suspension, the necessity of starting would have been obviated. But granting the necessity of putting the College in operation, it will hardly be claimed that the auspicors are to be wholly disregarded. Other advocates under any circumstances of this measure have been driven to the desperate resort of asserting, that its adoption will have the effect to attract students. They forget that the patronage of such an institution depends almost entirely upon the facilities for learning it affords, and the acceptableness of the professors as instructors, and as men. Whatever the amount appropriated by the Legislature, under circumstances which do not now exist, conduced to render the University acceptable, its present condition would scarcely be affected. The remedy for the evil is, therefore, not a foolish and fruitless expenditure of money, in the attempt to effect an object, under present circumstances impossible, but to give such character to the Institution as to secure it a liberal support. This, at present, it is impossible for the Legislature to do; let us, then, command the subject to the earnest consideration of the Board of Trustees, to whose hands is the power, and whose peculiar province it is to produce the change so much desired. Independently, Sir, of a belief that the encouragement of education is a great security to a proper administration of government, after influences, by which many would not be affected, would op rate strongly to induce me to very earnestly co-operate in any endeavors, even with slight promise of success, to restore the University of the State to its former position of influence and prosperity. It may be strange, and yet it is true, that men ever cherish with affectionate regard, the memory of the Institution to which they are indebted for whatever of culture they have, and for the position, however humble, they occupy among their fellows. I, sir, am not exempt from such influences.

It is a sad thing to compare the University, as it is, with what, in former days, it was. I do not mean to speak censoriously when I say that, so far as I can see, the present University is a failure. I am unwilling to say of those who were prominent in its establishment on the present basis, more than that they have erred. But, sir, of that there can be no doubt.

Now, sir, I insist on the motion to indefinitely postpone.

It is now ascertained by facts that all the severe articles in the Saturday Review on woman—many of which we have published—are from the pen of a woman.

The President has directed the Secretary of War to order Major General Reynolds to proceed with the registration in Texas, preparatory to an early election. It is understood that similar orders will soon be given to the military commanders of Virginia and Mississippi.—Nat. Intel.

ENTERPRISE.—We direct attention to the new advertisement of the N. C. R. & P. E. Agency. Several changes have been made. The list of property exhibits energy and enterprise. The charter and by laws have been published. They require, as we learn, the Treasurer, who is under bond, to make daily deposits in the Bank of all moneys received. Our daily exchanges will please note the fact.

WE WOULD respectfully call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company, with its accumulated assets of twenty four millions, and its surplus assets of seven millions over liabilities which makes it policy-holders doubly secure. Also see that the Company's increase for one year is more than the total loss a paid to date, and what is of prime importance, we have before us the facts that the interest of its accumulated fund has more than paid the company's losses for the last twelve years.

ORANGE PRESBYTERY—Second day; April 15.—The Presbytery met, and spent a session in devotional exercises. Several additional Ministers and Ruling Elders appeared and took their seats. Messrs. Wyche and Hudson, Ministers of the M. E. Church, being present, were invited to sit as corresponding members. The former Agent for the Bible Society for this State made an interesting report in relation to the policy and operations of that institution. Several items on the docket were disposed of. Pittsboro' was chosen as the place of the next meeting, and 15th September the time. An interesting discussion sprung up, in the afternoon, in regard to the representation of the Churches in the Presbytery. Commissioners to the General Assembly were nominated. Rev. A. G. Hughes, of the Hawfield's Church, will preach this evening, in the Presbyterian Church, at 8 o'clock.

M. A. BLEDSOE vs. STATE.—This was a case brought before his Honor, Judge Watts, the present week, by Mr. Bledsoe, for supplies furnished the Insane Asylum, on orders issued by the late Superintendent, Dr. C. E. Fisher. It seems that Mr. B. applied to the Legislature for an act authorizing the Treasurer to pay the claim. The Committee on Claims, to whom the matter was referred, reported they had no doubt of the correctness of the claim, as set up by Mr. B., but the magnitude of the amount, being $50,000 in Confederate money, induced the Committee to recommend that it be referred to the Supreme Court. This course was taken, and Mr. B. appeared before the Court, and proved the justness of his claim to the satisfaction of the Court. The matter then was referred to Mr. W. H. Bagley, Clerk of the Court, for further investigation, and Mr. Bagley, on satisfactory evidence, scaled the account down to something over $11,000; whereupon, the Court sent the case down to his Honor, Judge Watts, before whom it was tried the present week, and the Jury rendered a verdict in favor of Mr. Bledsoe, for $12 000, and now, at the next meeting of the General Assembly, that body will pass an act authorizing the Treasurer to pay.

TO OUR EXCHANGES.—The Wilmington Journal, Charlotte Democrat, Fayetteville Presbyterian, Salisbury Old North State, Newbern Journal of Commerce, Wilson Plaindealer, Norfolk Journal, Portsmouth Courier, Petersburg Index, Richmond Dispatch and Danville Times, are requested to copy the long advertisement in our paper of to day, for 3 months, and send bill to Hester Brothers & Co.

STATE NEWS.

The population of Chapel Hill is 1,100.

The Wilmington Post advises the press to look out for Sargent, the showman, and to take money for job work and advertising in advance. He's been tricking, we presume.—Roanoke News.

A letter, from Mr. Wm. F. Atkinson, now in Switzerland, just received here, informs us that he is doing pretty well in his mission. He had at last accounts succeeded in engaging upwards of one hundred and fifty Emigrants, and thinks, that he will be able to fill all orders in his hands during this month. He has chartered a sailing vessel for Wilmington, N. C., but is short of funds necessary to make the required arrangements, we would therefore urge upon the gentlemen composing the committee appointed to raise funds, to commence their task at once.

A negro woman got to shouting the other night in a new "body" that she had borrowed to wear to her dress. The lender couldn't stand it. She flew up to the altar and thus addressed the happy sister: "Look here, now, you's jest to stop dis tarin and rarin about, or pull off that body one. You is mua."—Hillsboro Recorder.

There is some talk about extending the Coal Fields' Railroad to Salisbury. If the Stockholders are wise, they will undoubtedly do so, at any cost. It would be the means of restoring the former prosperity of good old Fayetteville—by opening direct commication between that place and Western North Carolina, East Tennessee, and the farther West beyond, including the great Valley of the Mississippi.

ARRESTED.—Monroe, the negro who it was supposed at the time, murdered Burwell Hilton, a notice which appeared in our columns at the time of the occurrence, was arrested in Sharon neighborhood on Monday night by Joe Potts, a negro, and his uncle, who informed Mr. W. P. Robinson of the fact.—Charlotte Times.

We understand an opportunity will be given our citizens to subscribe to a scheme connecting Newbern with Smithfield, the extreme head of Neuse river navigation, by a light draft steamboat. The advantages which this city will derive from this connection are so very evident that it is barely necessary to allude to them.

The proposition is to purchase a steamer of the capacity of 2,000 barrels, to draw, when loaded, twenty-four inches of water. Such a steamer can be purchased for 12,000. Of this amount it is proposed that $6,000 be subscribed in Newbern, and the balance by those interested outside. If necessary, we are informed the county of Greene alone will furnish subscribers for that amount of stock.—Newbern Jour. of Com.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.—The called special meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington, Charlotte & Rutherford Railroad will be held in this city on Thursday next, the 15th instant. As is well known to those interested, the amendment to the charter granting State aid will be submitted to the stockholders for their acceptance or rejection. There will no doubt be a full representation as the question is an important one, much affecting the interests of the stockholders, and awaits decided action.—Wil. Jour.

Mr. Thomas Huntsinger, who lives within two miles of this place, met with a sad accident on Saturday last. The oxen, attached to the wagon, and which he was driving, took fright and ran away, throwing him out of the wagon, two of the wheels passing over his body, and mangling his arm in a frightful manner.

Only some ten days ago Huntsinger came near being drowned in attempting to cross Broad river with the same oxen, losing two of the wheels and the body of the wagon.—Rutherfordton Vindicator.

On Thursday evening, the 8th inst., a fight took place between Frank Earl and Iva, a boy from South Carolina (both colored,) at Mrs. H. Weaver's, in Polk county, which resulted in the death of Ivy. He was shot through the thigh, just above the knee, with a load of small shot, causing instant death.—Ruth. Vindicator.

KILLED.—John K. Smith, of Stokes county, was killed last week at a log rolling, by a log rolling over him on a hillside.—Winston Sentinel.

FROST.—We had a killing frost this morning—beans, cabbage plants, Irish potatoes, fruit, &c., were generally killed.—Greensboro Patriot.

Edgeworth Female Seminary, at Greensboro, has now some 90 scholars and is in a flourishing condition.

A NEW CATHOLIC CHURCH.—The Rev. Father Gibbons held services in the Court House at Halifax, N. C., on Wednesday, last. The Catholics in that town contemplate erecting a Church at an early day, as funds nearly sufficient for that purpose have been subscribed.—Tarboro Southerner.

QUICK WORK (!).—The present term of the Special Court has been in session nine days. During that time the large number of sixteen cases have been tried, and average of less than two a day. Surely this is unprecedentedly quick work. A paying institution, truly—how could it live without high taxes? But a bankrupt county can certainly afford it. Who cares so the taxes are paid.—Wil. Jour.

HORRORS OF THE SEA.—We are informed, that the captain of a vessel recently arrived at this port, brings intelligence that he saw a large steamer on fire, off Cape Hatteras, just before he came into our waters. He knew nothing more than this general fact, except that he beheld four boats, filled with human freight, put off from the steamer, only two of which seemed to reach the shore.—Eastern Int.

Dr. Conneau, the old friend and doctor of the Emperor Napoleon, receives a salary of fifty thousand francs, leads a jolly life in the upper floor of one of the pavilions of the Tuileries, and is a lucky stock gambler at the Bourse. The Emperor disburses all his charities through him, and often consults him in regard to political affairs.

A. J. Walt, once one of the wealthiest merchants of Memphis, became insane the other day, split a friend's head open with a hatchet, chopped the arm of another almost off, and finally, exclaiming, "Vain world, good-bye!" threw himself from the window on the pavement, breaking his neck.

Senator McCreery, of Kentucky, was the only Senator who voted for the ratification of the Alabama treaty.

Washington Correspondence of the New York Herald, April 12.

A SPECK OF WAR AT THE WHITE HOUSE—BELLIGERENT INTERVIEW BETWEEN THE PRESIDENT AND SENATOR ROSS.

Senator Ross, of Kansas, one of the gallant seven who voted against impeachment, bearded the Presidential lion in his den this morning. The report is that Ross went to the White House to look after certain appointments for his far off State. He had heard that the President intended to make certain nominations incomparable with the state he (Ross) had made out for himself. He proceeded to the White House, and was admitted to the same time as old Zach. Chandler, but had the first chance to speak his little piece to the President.

"I come, Mr. President, to talk with you about the appointments for my State, having heard that you intended to make certain nominations that may not harmonize with my desires, if you deem it worth while to consult them in the least."

To which Grant laconically and interrogatively responded, "Well, sir."

The Senator with suppressed rage explained the appointments to which he had reference.

"Frankly, sir," said Grant, "I intend not to make those appointments."

"What, sir! You scorn to accommodate me in the least," exclaimed Ross, boiling over with rage.

"Sir, I believe I have given you my answer," firmly but sternly replied Grant.

"This is not treating me fairly, Mr. President, nor as one gentleman should another," uttered Senator Ross.

"I have no intention to be dictated to, sir," said Grant sharply.

"Nor have I to be insulted, even by you sir, were you twenty times the President," exclaimed Ross, with his ire stirred up to white heat.

"I must decline to be annoyed any further on the subject," muttered Grant between his teeth, "and desire the interview should terminate."

"You and your desires may go to hell!" roared out Ross.

"Leave the room, sir! Leave the room, or I shall force you out!" thundered Grant.

Ross took his departure accordingly, in a terrible rage, quitting the White House like one rushing from a plague, and hurried to the Capitol. President Grant threw himself into a chair the moment the door closed, and wiped his brow with his pocket-handerchief, evidently very much agitated. Old Zach Chandler appreciated, and was thus addressed by the President:

"Excuse me for a few moments, Senator. After that interview I must take a little time to cool off."

Such is the account which I have learned and which I give substantially as it came to me. I do not vouch for its truth, but have good grounds to believe it is not very different from the actual occurrence.

WHIM WHAMS.

The good ladies of —— church determined to get up a contribution for the poor. They gathered necessaries and comforts, put their materials into a horse cart, and to old sister H's house they went.—They found the old lady just about to sit down to dinner. On the table was a fine roast turkey, sending up its appetizing odor. One of them said: "Why, sister H., we heard you were very poor, and came here to relieve your necessities; but here you have a fine roast turkey for dinner, which does not look much like destitution." "Pshaw!" said the old lady, looking at the turkey with a air of contempt, "I'd like to know what roast turkey is any how, without cranberry sauce."—J. C. Hiden, in Index.

Signor Blitz, the genial ventriloquist, gives the following amusing account of an interview he once held with Daniel Webster: When Webster was Secretary of State, the signor was in Washington endeavoring to collect a bill from a man who held a lucrative position in the Treasury Department. As he was intimate with Webster, Blitz called upon him and asked his advice on the subject. After learning that he could not attach the salary of a government officer, the signor said to Mr. Webster, "I think I would like to hold a government position." "Well, what would you want?" inquired Webster. "I would like to be a government magician," "Why so?" asked Webster. "Because," said the signor, "after you had carefully counted over a bundle of one hundred bank notes several times, I could count them over after you and there would be only seventy-five."—"Nonsense!" said Webster, "we have men in the Treasury now who can give you twenty-five and then beat you!"

A GOOD ONE.—Now we certainly are a great people—and here we are reminded of a little anecdote of our friend W. W. Gilmer, of Albemarle, who says a great many capital things:—In 1865 the Federal officer was swearing everybody in Charlottsville with the Johnson oath of allegiance. Gilmer went up in turn and with a grimace gulped it down. "Well," says he to the officer, "I suppose I am all right now?"—"Yes, sir—you are all right now," said the official. "Reconstructed, am I?" said Gilmer. "Yes," said the officer. "Under the old flag again?" said Gilmer. "Yes," said the officer; growing interested, "you are once more under the dear old flag." "A good Union man, now?" says Gilmer. "Yes, sir," says the officer, "you are as much in the Union now as I am." "As good a Yankee as anybody?" says Gilmer. "Yes, sir—just as good as any man in Boston," says the millitary notary. "Well, now, stranger," says Gilmer, "didn't old Stonewall Jackson give us Yankees fits in that Valley campaign."—Rich. Examiner.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN, Or Pure Liquor of Juniper Berries.

This favorite brand of Pure London Cordial Gin, has stood the test of time, imitation, piracy, high tariffs and unfair competition, and still enjoys a constantly increasing sale; showing that true merit does not always go unappreciated.

CHARLES' LONDON CORDIAL GIN is offered to the public as a perfectly reliable specific in all cases of DISEASED BLADDER and KIDNEYS. It acts directly on these organs, with a quickness and speediness which render it invaluable to persons suffering from GRAVEL, DIABETES INFLAMED BLADDER, scanty and highly colored urine, and in all cases where, from whatever cause, a healthful diuretic is required.

Ladies subject to painful menstruation, can by the use of Cordial Gin a few days previous to, and during illness, obtain great relief. In such instances it should be taken with sugar and warm water.

As a tonic and beverage this Gin is unequaled, as it possesses none of the headache properties to be found in those poisons, now so frequently sold under the names of Gin, Brandy, Whiskey, &c.

Thursday Midnight Dispatches.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—At the St. Louis banquet tendered to Gen. Schofield on Saturday next at the Southern Hotel, Gens. Sheridan and Custar and other notables will be present.

A dispatch from the Plains says the stages connected with the termini of the Pacific railroad in twelve hours' travel over roads that were very heavy.

Assessor Weaver at New York, has been instructed that bankers must return as capital all money, whether borrowed or otherwise, employed in their business, excepting only deposits which are returned for taxes.

Commandants of forts have been forbidden to allow photographs to be taken of the works.

Inspector General James Totten has been assigned to the Military Division of the South, and Col. R. Jones to the Department of the South.

Custom receipts for the week ending April 10, are over five millions of dollars.

By orders issued to-day the pay districts heretofore organized are to be discontinued, and paymasters will hereafter be under the command of Commanders of districts, departments and divisions like other staff officers. For the safe deposit and easy distribution of pay, depots are to be established at New York, St. Louis, New Orleans and San Francisco. General Daniel McClure has been assigned to the charge of the depots.

Seldon, seated just before the close of the session, from the second Louisiana district, was robbed of the pay and mileage which he had been allowed to draw.

Senator Anthony has made a personal explanation in response to Mr. Spragu's attacks.

Nominations—Henry Baxter, of Michigan, to be Minister to Honduras; Charles E. Delong of Nevada to be Minister to Japan; Gen Adam Badeau, of Grant's staff, to be assistant Secretary of legation at London; Ed. M. McCook to be Governor of Colorado.

Postmasters—E. B. Fullings, Charlotte, N. C.; Bail at Lagrange, Georgia.

Mr. Motley is here, stopping with Mr Sumner. It is stated that Mr. Fisher is nominated commissioner of patents.

It is stated that Gen. Sickles is retired from the Army on full pay.

It is understood that the Havana Consul, Gen. Plumb, has been instructed to demand full satisfaction for American injuries from Spaniards.

The Superior Court adjourned to-day. Several unimportant cases were decided. A number were taken under advisement and then ordered to be argued at the next term. Marshal Phelps suggested a rehearing in the Texas bond case, but the Chief Justice said no member of the Court had changed it, and he saw no reason to depart from the rules.

Judge Paschal said the counsel had not been able to agree upon a decree. The Chief Justice answered that the draft furnished by Paschal had been modified under the instructions of the Judges, and the decree would be shown to the counsel. The decree will be settled to-morrow.

The Blair test oath case from Missouri is continued for further argument.

HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITIES

SAY OF THE

BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. SPEC. Jan. 1869.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

WASHING COMPOUND.

Patented Sept. 22, 1868.

REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS SOAP.

The Patentee claims for this Soap the following advantages which are clearly set forth in the Letters Patent, to-wit:

First, it can be manufactured at less than half the cost of any soap ever produced.

Secondly, it may be used successfully in any kind of water—cold or hot, hard or soft.

Thirdly, it so modifies the action of boiling water on woollen goods that their fibres do not contract under its influence, and your woollen garment is as large after boiling as before.

Fourth, it does not decompose the colors of goods, and your prints and stripes are as brilliant after washing as before.

Fifth the goods do not require any rubbing or patent washing machine—all that is necessary is a few minutes boiling and a good rinsing.

GUARANTEED BALTIMORE PRICES.

We ask of our friends, and the WHOLESALE TRADE, generally, an examination of our stock and prices. We are confident we can save time and expense to merchants by buying of us this season.

One of our firm will remain in New York during the entire season, and we will therefore be in constant receipt of new goods bought at auction, of Manufacturers and Importers.

AN ANSWER TO THIS GREAT QUESTION:

"Where to Get First-Class Goods at Reasonable Prices?"

GO TO

M. GRAUSMAN,

MERCHANT TAILOR,

FAYETTEVILLE STREET, RALEIGH, N. C.

AS FAR AS GOODS ARE CONCERNED, my Cloths, Cassimeres, &c., are first-class in style and quality. It really does the eye good to examine them.

The art in making up such Goods stylish and becoming is simple and correct, and almost an impossibility to fail in making a PERFECT FIT.

My stock of READY-MADE CLOTHING, mostly custom work, as well as Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods, Hats, Boots and Shoes, &c., is large and well selected, and I am willing to Retail at Wholesale prices.

Don't fail to call on your servant.

apr8-tf M. GRAUSMAN.

CAUTION! WE desire to warn the dealers in, and consumers of Snuff generally, that since the war, certain Tobacco Manufacturers, being unable to find a market for their snuffs, felt themselves obliged to counterfeit the general appearance of our packages, and imitate our Trade Marks so that a close inspection is necessary to detect the spurious article from the genuine, and others going so far as to assert that "Lorillard's Snuff is no longer made."

In making this publication we desire to warn the public against the impositions practiced upon them, as they are the losers thereby. It will be found, upon comparison, that Lorillard's Snuff is "far ahead" of all others, being made of the best stock, after an original and secret process known only to ourselves, besides possessing great age, strength and pungency, and is warranted not to contain any dangerous or deleterious substances, which cannot be said of many worthless articles put on sale by others. The best is the cheapest in the end. A circular will always be mailed on application. In ordering please specify if Salt Snuff (High Toast,) or Fresh Snuff (Extra Scotch) is desired.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF THE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,

$1,000,000,

PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but ACTUARIES, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he rooms into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of $1,000,000

NATIONAL

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.

Amount insured,	$10 005,550 00
Total Premiums,	350,117 63

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 802

By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey,	691
" New England Mutual,	513
" Phœnix Mutual,	335
" Massachusetts Mutual,	312
" Equitable of New York,	277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existence, only issued 470 policies.

In its 10th year,	1,260 "
And in its 20th year,	2,842 "

this latter being 680 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC

CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the coarsest blankets. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not rub them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and cleansing the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction.—A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be returned in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters or approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at DOUGLAS & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
